POSTMASTERS TO MEET.

More Than 2,500 Presidential Appointees Will Convene Here.

More than 2,500 Presidential postmasters of cities throughout the United States are expected to attend a convention of Presidential postmasters to be held in Washington April 13, 19, 20 and 21. Several speakers of nation-wide fame will address the gathering, and numerous questions of vital import to the members will come up for consideration and discussion.

Final arrangements for the convention and naming of dates for the meeting were perfected at a recent meeting of the subcommittee on arrangements. This committee is composed of President Colin W. Selph, of St. Louis; Treasurer Frank L. Sites, of Harrisburg, Pa., and Secretary Eugene L. Shannon, of Nashville, Tenn.
